

21st Annual Cherie Smith JCC JEWISH BOOK FESTIVAL

THE 10th ANNUAL

Young Authors' Tea

Sunday November 27, 2005 1 - 3 pm
Wosk Auditorium of the JCC
950 West 41st Ave Vancouver

Calling Jewish youth Grades 3 to 5

Enter this year's Young Authors' Tea for an opportunity to have your writing published in JCC's annual Young Authors' Tea book. Limited numbers of the books will be printed. To be sure you have a copy, please fill out the order form.

Submission Deadline to JCC

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 10TH 2005 AT 5 PM

Poem or Short Story (maximum 1 page).

This year's

'Sports'

Calling all athletes, aspiring Olympians, readers, writers, and those with a great imagination! Come and join us in a celebration of literature and sport in a Jewish context.

The topics include:

- My Most Memorable / Unusual Moment in Sports
- If I Could Invent a Maccabi Sport, it would be...
- My Favourite Jewish Sports Hero
- Imagine Me ... A Sports Hero!
- The Sport I like to Play or Watch is...

All submissions will be printed. There may be a draw to select those authors who will read aloud and for book prizes. Only those who arrive on time and sign in will be eligible for the draw.

topic:

Maccabi Games 2006 hosted by the JCCGV!

This year, the Jewish Community Centre of Greater Vancouver is the proud host of the 2006 JCC Maccabi Games. The Olympics style event will take place August 13-18, 2006, and will involve over 1800 Jewish athletes and coaches from Canada, the United States, Europe, South America, Australia, and of course, ISRAEL!

