

AUCTION GUIDELINES

The Jewish Community Centre of Greater Vancouver

All sales are final. There will be no exchange or refund on items, unless otherwise stated by the donor.

Payment for an auction item by the successful bidder must be made at the Cashier's Desk, by Visa, Master Card, cash or cheque. In addition to your successful bid, PST will be added where applicable.

PAYMENT IN FULL REQUIRED THE NIGHT OF THE AUCTION.

Auction items, including gift certificates, may be picked up following the dinner by producing the 'paid in full' invoice. Items not paid for by 11:00 pm will be held for the successful bidder by the Jewish Community Centre for a maximum of 3 days, after which time, the next highest bidder will be given the opportunity to pay for the item. In the event of a dispute involving an auction item, the decision of the Jewish Community Centre will be final.

Certain items carry a minimum bid. No less than the minimum will be accepted.

THE HIGHEST BIDDER FROM THE AUCTION BID SHEETS WILL BE AWARDED THE ITEM.

Please Note: The Jewish Community Centre of Greater Vancouver makes every effort to properly describe all auction items. All items are sold 'as is', and the JCC neither warrants nor represents, and shall in no event be responsible for the correctness of the description, genuineness, authorship, provenance or condition of the property. No statement contained in the catalogue or made orally at the auction or elsewhere shall be deemed to be a warranty, representation or assumption of the liability. The JCC reserves the right to withdraw any item from the auction prior to the call for bids. The retail values listed in this auction catalogue or on our website are the prices given to the JCC at the time of the donation. The JCC will not be responsible for any values that have changed since the printing of this catalogue, or that may be found cheaper via other methods such as internet specials, wholesalers or any other vendors.
